

RE-ELECT WILL KENNAWAY AS VICE-PRESIDENT/EXTERNAL OFFICER

Hi. I'm Will, a second-year English student. And I'd like to carry on as your External Officer/Vice-President.

Why?

- I love committees. I have a huge amount of experience both being in and chairing committees, not only in the JCR but in the Council of the School of Arts and Humanities, in which I represent thousands of students, as Chief of Staff in last year's Cambridge IV, one of the world's biggest debating competitions involving about 500 guests, and as Theatre Editor at the Tab.
    - In other words, I've got my fingers in lots of pies, and all of the information I get from those pies will feed into my ability to perform this role and keep everyone up to date with important developments.
    - I have already been doing this job for a year. I know how CUSU Council works, I know what the ongoing issues are, and I have a working relationship with a number of people involved in both CUSU Council and the Presidents and Externals meetings.
  - I'm great at communicating. I've debated competitively since school and I'm Theatre Editor at the Tab: both in person and in text I will communicate effectively with people both in and out of college, which is what this role really requires.

What will I do?

- Carry on relaying relevant information to the student body. I won't clutter up your inbox with details of the generally quite mundane minutes of each council; I will carry on letting you know about important stuff that will affect you, like strikes or CUSU elections.
- Help the rest of the committee do their jobs by sharing good practice from other colleges and information gleaned from the Council of the School of Arts and Humanities.
- Get CUSU to work for you by supporting the JCR if necessary against college authorities (as it has constantly offered to, most recently with the room ballot reform).
- Most importantly, I'll help negotiate a Sky TV subscription for the new JCR using the new discounted rates that CUSU has secured for all colleges.
